27th September 2019

Dear Parents/Carers,

Today we had our open morning for new parents and our Y6 children did a fantastic job showing prospective parents around the school. We are happy to offer additional tours of the school throughout the term, so please do come and visit us if you have a younger child, we are happy to show existing parents around as well as new parents.

Now the weather seems to have turned please remember to send the children to school with a waterproof, we want them to get out side as much as possible.

I am delighted to tell you that there are a few parents who have offered to establish a PTA and we are really looking forward to organising some PTA events for this term. If you feel you would like to support the PTA then please contact the office leaving your name and number and we will be in touch with you.

Have a good weekend everyone!

CHAPLAINCY CORNER

Did you know that every leaf on an oak tree is different? That no snowflake is the same as another.

This week, Mrs Turner reminded us that we are all unique. And because we are unique, we are each treasured for who we are.

Next Friday, we have our first collective worship led by a class. Our persevering Barley children will lead us and their parents are warmly welcome to join us for 9am.

This week, please pray:

- for all the children in Barley, Miss Underwood and the other adults who support these children in their learning..
- for Mrs Mushtaq and the foundation children as they learn together
