Dear Parents and Carers

We have had an absolutely BOOK-tastic week here in school, which started last Monday with a wonderfully atmospheric production of the Jungle Book, and ended today with costumes, characters, book swaps and story-tellers, all with one purpose in mind: to remind us to READ FOR PLEASURE every single day. A huge thank you to Mrs. Palfreyman for organising all of the events this week. It really has been a wonderful celebration of reading.

It was so lovely to see the wide array of costumes on show today, from astronauts to princesses, pirates and every kind of animal you can imagine! Thankyou so much for being so supportive and for getting behind the day.

We look forward to next week and our Caldecott Year 4 parents meeting on Tuesday afternoon, and the School Councils' book breakfast on Wednesday morning. I am looking forward to meeting lots of you at those two events

Until then, have a lovely weekend and we will see you next week! Warmest regards

Mel Nugent
