7th September 2016

Dear Parent / Guardian,

Your child has been chosen to participate in a special webcast event on Thursday 22nd September with Royal birthday cake-maker and Bake Off-winner (and fellow parent at this school), Nadiya Hussain. During the event Nadiya will be interviewed live by popular children's CBBC television presenter, Katie Thistleton.

The event will be filmed live – thousands of children from around the UK will be watching along. Nadiya will tell the audience all about her new children's story and cookbook, Bake Me a Story, and how her own children inspired her to write it with their love of reading stories!

Your child may be captured on film by being part of the audience at this event so it is important that we have your permission for them to be filmed. As well as streaming the event live to other schools, the event will be available after the 22nd September to watch on the website Children's Authors Live www.childrensauthorslive.com.

Please sign the form below to indicate that you give permission for your child to be filmed. Provision will be made for children who are not able to be filmed so that they are still able to enjoy watching this special event. Every effort will be made by the film crew to film children so their faces are not seen. If we do not hear from you, we will make the assumption that you do NOT give permission for your child to take part in the event, and will keep them in class for the period of the event.

The previous evening, Wednesday 21st September, after school, the Book People will be selling copies of Nadiya's book should you wish to buy one. Children will be able to ask Nadiya to sign the book after the event on the following day.

Yours sincerely,

Huw Humphreys

About Nadiya's Bake Me a Story

Nadiya's Bake Me a Story is the first children's book from nation's sweetheart, and winner on the UK's most-watched TV show of 2015, BAFTA-winning Great British Bake Off, Nadiya Hussain.

This unique mix of storybook and cookbook contains recipes and stories devised and written by Nadiya herself and features illustrations and photographic images of Nadiya and her children.

The book was inspired by her kids who love reading as much as Nadiya loves cooking. They said to their mum, 'Why can't we read and cook at the same time?'

Nadiya's Bake Me a Story brings families into the kitchen to spend time sharing stories and cooking. Get messy making yummy bean patties, and while they are in the oven, curl up with the story of 'Jack and the Bean-Patty Stalk', or read about 'Ruby-Red, the Three Bears and their Very-Berry Breakfast Muffins' while you wait for your own to bake!

Like her bakes, Nadiya's stories all have a sprinkling of something original. We have 'The Princess and the Pea Risotto', or 'Sleepless Beauty', who is cursed to never sleep again, until she comes across a magical mug of hot chocolate with cardamom...
